March Highlights

Women's breakfast—Saturday, March 2 at 9am

Women are invited to join us for a delicious free breakfast on Saturday, March 2 at 9 am. Evelyn Mendoza will share "God's story," a testimony of what God has done in her life. All women are encouraged to attend for fun, fellowship, friendship, and food. Bring a friend!

Black history month cultural luncheon—Sunday, March 3 at 12:45 pm

Join us as we culminate Black history month with a cultural celebration luncheon. This is a wonderful opportunity to for all to be inspired and to strive for excellence regardless of race, color, or country of origin. Pastor Lyddale Akins from Triumphant Life church will be the guest speaker. Please sign up in advance at the welcome center.

Dorsey Ross—Sunday, March 10 at 8:30 am & 11 am

Born with Apert Syndrome, Dorsey had to overcome many obstacles. Don't miss his testimony on God's faithfulness in his life. His desire is to inspire others with the message that, regardless of any disability, God can use you!

Women's book club—Thursday, March 28 at 7:30 pm

All are welcome to come out for a discussion of the book, "Seeking Allah, Finding Jesus," by Nabeel Qureshi. This is a dramatic story of one man's unexpected journey from Islam to Christianity. This powerful story illustrates the discord in one man's heart until he eventually receives the peace only found in Jesus. Refreshments will be served.
